Neighborhood News:

From Alderman Reilly's 42nd Ward Update:

New Bike Lanes for Streeterville and River North!

The new bike lanes, running from the "Lakefront Trail" to Orleans Street, will be approximately 1.25 miles and located in the eastbound traffic lane on Illinois Street and the westbound traffic lane on Grand Avenue. The lanes are scheduled to be ready for use by Friday, October 29 (weather conditions permitting). Read More.

Public Safety and Infrastructure Improvements Coming to the New Eastside!

With Alderman Reilly's oversight, CDOT has designed several large-scale improvements to the New Eastside area, which will help to slow vehicular traffic and significantly improve pedestrian, bicycle and vehicular safety. Read More.

Parkway Improvements for Streeterville!

Streeterville residents can now enjoy the long-awaited parkway improvements newly implemented on the south side of Pearson Street, between DeWitt Place and Inner Lake Shore Drive. See before and after photos.

From USA Today via the U.S. Travel Association:

Business Travel is Up, but Frugality Still Rules

Businesses will send more people out on the road next year, making up for lost time during the recession, when travel budgets were slashed and corporate trekkers mostly stayed put, corporate travel managers say. But the frugality that took hold in the economic downturn will continue, they say. Read More.
