LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

While we are growing GNMAA into an organization that brings more value to our members and the community at large, we are paying attention to the fundamentals of running the association.

Two important aspects of this “behind the scenes effort” are being more responsive to the individual needs of members and maintaining an appropriate dues structure. This means surveying our members, an exercise we haven’t done in a decade, and raising dues, something we haven’t done in over five years.

Later this month you will receive a survey, the results of which will help our volunteer leaders and staff establish GNMAA’s agenda for the coming year. It is important that your voice be heard. Please respond to the questionnaire promptly and in a manner that accurately expresses the direction your association should be headed.

About the same time you will receive your dues invoice for 2008. This will be the first time all memberships will extend for the calendar year. Also, these invoices will reflect an increase in dues.

By making everyone’s membership anniversary date January 1st, we improved GNMAA’s operational efficiencies immensely. All dues invoices will be prepared and mailed at one time. Formerly, invoices were sent each month to a different group of members, a burdensome process that required extra record keeping, manual labor, and follow-ups throughout the year. Please look for your invoice, respond promptly, and help us simplify this process even further.

Also, the invoice you will soon receive will reflect the 10% dues increase approved by your executive committee. I am very proud to say that GNMAA’s member services have increased dramatically with closer scrutiny being given to urban planning issues, stronger communication with city government regarding the enforcement of construction and signage ordinances, and the creation of more and better networking opportunities. Due to the growth in sponsorships and the success of fund raising events, total membership dues have decreased from 35% to 25% of the budget. While this is good and reduces the burden on members for the value they receive, dues need to be balanced with other sources of income. This dues increase is less than 3% of GNMAA’s $2 million budget and less than inflation during the period since dues were last increased.

I appreciate all that each of you do in this process to create value for our stakeholders and look forward to working with you to make the organization even more responsive.

Sincerely,

Ralph M. Weber

GNMAA Chairman of the Board

Vice President, Northwestern Memorial Hospital

LETTER FROM THE LIGHTS FESTIVAL CHAIR

Did you know that it takes 150 volunteer committee members and 800 event volunteers for the continued success of The Magnificent Mile Lights Festival™ presented by Harris?

The volunteer component of this event is quite amazing. In fact, there are many event volunteers and committee members that have been participating in this event for 16 years. For me, it is like being with urban family, which is one of the reasons that I participate year after year.

One of my favorite moments is when I see one million smiling faces as Mickey Mouse lights the lights along The Magnificent Mile. It is truly an experience of a lifetime. The Magnificent Mile Lights Festival presented by Harris has many individual and group volunteer possibilities including Stage Show hosts, Pre-procession entertainment and Public information. If you want the best seat along the mile, I recommend volunteering as a Procession Volunteer. Please fill out the form on page 6 to volunteer.

Whether you are an attendee or a volunteer, I look forward to seeing you at The 2007 Magnificent Mile Lights Festival presented by Harris on November 17.

Sincerely,

Nicole Jachimiak

Member Spotlight

Dan Antolak – FASTSIGNS

Dan Antolak, owner of FASTSIGNS, joined GNMAA a couple months before opening his store 10 years ago and had orders through GNMAA members before he opened the doors. Ever since, he has been an advocate and supporter of GNMAA. He says that he has made friends and business associates throughout the years and now attributes 25% or more of revenues directly or indirectly to the association.

Dan has served on many committees over the years including Membership, Mentor, Tulips, Awards, Sign & Urban Design, and the Task Force to update the City Ordinance on Signage. He has received the award for recruiting the most new members two times. He says, "It is easy to explain the depth and breadth the organization takes on if you give it a little of your time."

Dan attributes his favorable experience with GNMAA to the people saying, "One of the reasons I have spent so much time with GNMAA over the years is due to the people like Holly Agra, who referred me to the movie production company of "The Break-Up", where we were able to get a large order setting up graphics on her boat used in the movie.

"Bob Dion of Davis Harrison Dion (member) referred me to John McCarthy of Airport Express (member) and now we are helping supply graphics to a nationwide fleet of vans. I could go on and on with more examples of these types of referrals that are so important to the health of a business. No wonder we have grown through the years. Thank you GNMAA."

Paradise Found on Michigan Avenue

The GNMAA Public Way Committee has completed their 2007 Beautification Award Series. Winners were presented at the September 27 Quarterly Luncheon, held at the Sheraton Chicago Hotel & Towers.

There were many magnificent landscapes to judge, and the Public Way Committee was proud to award 679 N. Michigan Avenue with the 2007 President's Award for near perfect scores at both the Spring and Summer walks.

Managed by Water Tower Realty, this well-maintained property pleased judges with its stunning garden, healthy trees, water features and spotless sidewalks. Moore Landscapes helped bring the garden to life in elegant fashion.

Orchard Road Business Association Visits

The Orchard Road Business Association, GNMAA's counterpart in Singapore, visited The Magnificent Mile on September 10, 2007.

This all volunteer association met with the staff of GNMAA to find similarities and differences in our respective great avenues of the world and share ideas.

While in Chicago, they saw many of the city's premier properties. Mitch Feldman of General Growth Properties hosted a tour of Water Tower Place, Barry Graham of Urban Retail hosted a tour of The 900 Shops, and Greg Holland treated the group to a walk-through at Nordstrom. Additionally, thanks to Holly Agra and John Curran, the group enjoyed tours aboard Chicago's First Lady and on a Chicago Trolley respectively. The group enjoyed lunch at The Signature Room at the 95th thanks to Rick Roman.

They took away many ideas to grow membership and build sponsorships. For more information on Orchard Road visit www.orchardroad.sg.
